The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 7. 1722.

THE following humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Rector of the Parish, Curate of the Chapel, Gentlemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation and Town of Deal, has been presented to His Majesty by Hercules Baker, Esq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously, and Mr. Baker had the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, having a due Sense of the great Blessings we enjoy under your happy Administration, by whose Justice all your People are protected and secured in the full Enjoyment of their legal Rights and Privileges, and by whose Clemency many of the unwary, and some obstinate Offenders have been indulged; with equal Surprize and Abhorrence hear, that a Conspiracy has been for some time formed, and is still carrying on in the Heart of your Majesty's Kingdom; which if it should succeed, must be to the manifest Destruction of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

But we on this Occasion take Leave to assure your Majesty, that to the utmost of our Power we will guard and defend this Part of the Coast of your Dominions; and that as we have hitherto used with Success, our Endeavours to apprehend some of your Majesty's rebellious Subjects who were flying to their Friends abroad, so we will continue them, and use no less in preventing their Adherents from coming to compleat their wicked Designs against your Person and Government; being unanimously determined to expose our Lives in the Defence of both, and faithfully to serve, honour, and humbly obey your Majesty, as becomes good Christians and loyal Subjects. And,

That your Reign may be long and prosperous, undisturbed by intestine Commotions, or Foreign Invasions, and that there may never be wanting one of your illustrious Family to rule over us, are the daily and sincere Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects

Hamburg, Dec. 4. Advices from Berlin say, that the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel has caused a Proposal to be made to the King of Prussia for the Loan of 500,000 Rixdollars upon Security of the County of Schavembourg; 'tis added, that his Prussian Majesty is disposed to advance that Sum, provided the Emperour consents to that Security, which otherwise cannot be valid. . . . Letters from Mecklenberg give an Account, that the Gentlemen of that Country, Adherents to the Duke, set those of the Nobility's Party, have newly received Letters from their Prince, encouraging them to continue firm, assuring them of his Acknowledgements. . . . A Letter from Moscow, dated the 8th of October, is thence here, in which 'tis said, that the chief Reason why the Czar returned so suddenly to Astracan was, that a whole Fleet laden with Provisions at Astracan and bound for Derbent, was cast away in its Passage on the Caspian Sea; and also, that a second Fleet laden in the same Manner at Astracan, under the Command of Captain Villabois, to supply the Loss of the former, met with the like Misfortune, and was also cast away; that these Accidents made it indispensibly necessary to return with the Army into Russia, the Provisions that remained being not sufficient to last three Days.

Mr. de Ville neuse, born at Paris, who speaks Latin, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, High-Dutch, and English, advertises the Curious in the French Tongue, that he now resides at London. As he has some Scholars at the Navy-Office, he lodges at present in Tower-street, at Mr. Baber's House, a Milliner's, opposite to Barkin Church. He has made it his whole Business for these 25 Years to teach French in all the Foreign Courts; and by much Study and Pains has invented a Method to erase, that without making use of any printed Grammar, a Scholar may easily learn, in four Months, to speak, read, and write, provided he apply himself to it. His Price is 40 Shillings each Scholar a Month, if there be but one Scholar; if two, he runs it for a Guinea each; and if three learn together, 25 Shillings apiece. He most humbly desires the Curious not to send for him, if they do not intend to give the Price above-mentioned; for he is not of the Number of those Masters who teach by the Quarter. Moreover he acquaints them, that Nothing is more common, especially in London, than to meet with Persons who call themselves Masters of the French Tongue, but Nothing more rare than to find one who has a good Method, and who perfectly understands the Rules of Grammar.

At the HUNGARY-WATER Ware-House, remov'd from the Black-Boy and Comb in Fleet-Street to the Black-Boy and Comb on Ludgate-Hill, the Corner of Bell-Savage-Inn, a Toy-Shop, is sold right French Hungary-Water, in large half Pint Flint Bottles, at One Shilling and Three Pence each, being the same sort sold there several Years, or rather better, being a fresh Parcel. One Spoonful turns a Glass of Water as white as Milk, which the counterfeit sort made here, only turns of a Sky Colour, by reason the Spirit and Flowers are not so good in this Country as in France. So beware of Counterfeits made of English Malt Spirits, put in the same sort of Bottles, and sold at several Prices in Town and Country, but will not turn Water white. Note, Merchants and others may be supplied by Wholesale, and sold no where else in England, but at the Place above-mentioned.
